

(ii) in the determination from time to time of the amount of net income or principal which may or may not be paid to any one or more of such beneficiaries;

the Trustee may exercise the discretion for such purposes as those relating to the health, education (including preparatory, collegiate and/or graduate education), support and maintenance of such beneficiaries. The Trustee shall be free in the exercise of such discretion from any interference, control or demand by any of the beneficiaries of any of the trusts, or by any other person. The Trustee shall not in any event be liable to any one with respect to such determinations.

B. The Trustee is expressly authorized to accumulate the net income of the trust and at any time thereafter to allocate the same or to allocate and distribute all or any portion of such net income to the members of the group eligible to receive the same, or some one or more of them, in such proportions as the Trustee determines; to accumulate income without allocation, and at any time thereafter and from time to time to add such income so accumulated to the principal of the trust.

ARTICLE V

A. Reference to this trust to 'child' or 'children' mean lawful blood descendants in the first degree of the parent designated, and reference to 'issue' mean lawful blood descendants in the first, second, or any other degree of the ancestors designated, provided that an adopted child and such adopted child's lawful blood descendants shall be considered as lawful blood descendants of the adopting parent or parents and of any one who is by blood or adoption an ancestor of the adopting parent or of either of the adopting parents.

B. Throughout this trust agreement the masculine gender shall be deemed to include the feminine and vice versa.
