

subsist between me and them or any of them, and in such manner as my said attorney-in-fact shall think proper; hereby giving to my said attorney power and authority to do, execute, and perform and finish for me and in my name all those things which shall be expedient and necessary, or which my said attorney shall judge expedient and necessary in and about or concerning the premises, or any of them, as fully as I could do if personally present, hereby ratifying and confirming whatever my said attorney shall do or cause to be done in, about, or concerning the premises, and any part thereof.

15. To constitute, substitute and appoint in the place and stead of my said attorney, one or more attorneys to exercise for me, as my attorney or attorneys, any and all of the powers and authorities hereby conferred, and to revoke any such appointment from time to time and to substitute or appoint any other or others in the place of such attorney or attorneys, as my said attorney may from time to time think fit.

16. In general, to do all other acts, deeds, matters and things whatsoever, in or about my estate, property and affairs, or to concur with persons jointly interested with myself therein, in doing all acts, deeds, matters and things herein, either particularly or generally described, as fully and effectively to all intents and purposes as I could do in my own proper person if personally present.

17. This power of attorney shall not be affected by physical disability or mental incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his (her) own estate.

18. I do hereby ratify and confirm all things whatsoever my said attorney or such substitute or substitutes, shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents, including anything which shall be done between the revocation of these presents by my death, or in any other manner, and notice of such revocation reaching my said attorney; and I hereby declare that as against me and all persons claiming under me, everything which my said attorney shall do, or cause to be done, after such revocation as aforesaid, shall be valid and effective in favor of any person claiming the benefit thereof who, before the doing thereof shall not have had notice of such revocation.

19. I do hereby revoke all powers of attorney I have previously executed.

This instrument is to be construed and interpreted as a general power of attorney. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts, or powers herein is not intended to, nor does it, limit or restrict, and is not to be construed or interpreted as limiting or restricting, the general powers herein granted to said attorney-in-fact.
