

Forrester during their lifetime or the lifetime of the survivor of the two.

3. Termination. Unless earlier terminated as hereinafter provided, this trust shall terminate upon the death of the survivor of Thomas Forrester and Lillie C. Forrester at which time the Trust Estate and any undistributed income shall be transferred and paid over by the Trustee in equal shares to the Settlers or their heirs or assigns and if no heirs or assigns then to be disposed of in accordance with the laws of dissent and distribution of the State of South Carolina.

4. Trustee's Powers. Without in any way limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Trustee shall have the following powers: to allot, allocate between principal and income, assign, borrow, buy, care for, collect, compromise claims, contract with respect to, continue any business of the Settlor, convey, convert, deal with, dispose of, enter into, exchange, hold, improve, incorporate any business of the Settlor, invest, lease, manage, mortgage, grant and exercise options with respect to, take possession of, pledge, receive, release, repair, sell, sue for, to make distributions in cash or in kind or partly in each without regard to the income tax basis of such asset and in general, to exercise all of the powers in the management of the Trust Estate which any individual could exercise in the management of similar property owned in its own right, upon such terms and conditions as to the Trustee may seem best, and to execute and deliver any and all instruments and to do all acts which the Trustee may deem proper or necessary to carry out the purposes of this Trust, without being limited in any way by the specific grants of power made, and without the necessity of a court order.

5. Accounting by Trustee. During the term of this trust, the Trustee shall render to the Settlers statement of account of his receipts and disbursements as Trustee hereunder at least annually. The Trustee shall be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred in the management and protection of the Trust Estate.
