

the co-owners when such is specifically required of these Bylaws. The Board of Directors shall exercise such duties and responsibilities as shall be incumbent upon it by law, the Master Deed or these Bylaws, if it may deem necessary or appropriate in the exercise of its powers and shall include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following:

(i) To make, levy and collect assessments against members and members' units to defray the costs of the common areas and facilities of the condominium, and to use the proceeds of said assessments in the exercise of the powers and duties granted unto the Association;

(ii) The maintenance, repair, replacement, operation, surveillance and the management of the common areas and facilities of the condominium wherever the same is required to be done and accomplished by the Association for the benefit of its members;

(iii) The reconstruction of improvements after casualty and the further improvement of the property, real and personal;

(iv) To make and amend regulations governing the use of the property, real and personal, in the condominium project so long as such regulations or amendments thereto do not conflict with the restrictions and limitations which may be placed upon the use of such property under the terms of the Articles of Incorporation and Master Deed.

(v) To acquire, operate, lease, manage and otherwise trade and deal with property, real and personal, including units in the condominium, as may be necessary or convenient in the operation and management of the condominium, and in accomplishing the purposes set forth in the Master Deed.

(vi) To contract for the management of the common areas and facilities in the condominium project and to designate to such contractor all of the powers and duties of the Association, except those which may be required by the Master
