

Tribune Times once a week for three consecutive weeks in accordance with §57-9-10, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, as amended. It further appears that the Tribune Times is a newspaper of general circulation published in Greenville County, which paper, however has a wider circulation in the Fountain Inn area where the subject of this action is located.

It appears from the pleadings and the testimony that this action was initiated by the Petitioners to close a road sometimes known as Old Woodside Avenue, extending from its intersection with McCarter Road to its intersection with the newer improved Woodside Avenue. It further appears that said road is located inside the Town of Fountain Inn in Greenville County.

The Petitioner, Paul E. Gault, was present in Court and testified that he along with the other Petitioner, H. Zed Jones, own the great majority of all property abutting on Old Woodside Avenue. I find further, from the evidence presented unto me that the Greenville County Redevelopment Authority is the owner of a small portion of the frontage on Old Woodside Avenue reference being had to deed to the Greenville County Redevelopment Authority recorded October 12, 1982 in Deed Book 1175 at page 580, R.M.C. Office for Greenville County. A copy of the plat to the Authority's property was also introduced into the record, said plat being recorded in Plat Book 9-A at page 78, R.M.C. Office for Greenville County. The Petitioner, referred to above, then presented unto the Court evidence of the Petitioners' ownership of all other abutting property, such evidence being shown by deed from J. C. Peden recorded April 19, 1966 in Deed Book 796 at page 455; deed from Gena Maude Gault, et al recorded June 29, 1966 in Deed Book 801 at page 197; and deed from J. C. Peden recorded July 12, 1967 in Deed Book 823 at page 310. The Petitioner also presented unto the Court a drawing by the Petitioner showing the property involved ^{and} where the respective roads lie. The Petitioner also presented unto the Court two plats which depict the property
