

1984

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS:

1. PERSONAL PROPERTY

It is the intent of this Power of Attorney to convey to my attorney in fact full power over my personal property, as well as my real property, and that any and all powers granted herein relating to real property are also applicable to personal property.

2. GENERAL POWER OF ATTORNEY

This instrument is to be construed and interpreted as a general power of attorney. The enumeration of specific items, rights, acts or powers herein is for purposes of illustration only and is not intended to, nor does it, limit or restrict, and is not to be construed or interpreted as limiting or restricting, the general powers herein granted to said attorney in fact.

This power of attorney shall not be affected by the subsequent <sup>physical mental</sup> disability or incompetence of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing his own affairs.

Without in any wise limiting the foregoing, generally to do, execute and perform any other act, deed, matter or thing whatsoever, that ought to be done, executed and performed, or that, in the opinion of my said attorney ought to be done, executed or performed in and about the premises, of every nature and kind whatsoever, as fully effectual as I could do if personally present.

And I do hereby ratify and confirm all whatsoever that my said attorney or his substitute or substitutes, shall do, or cause to be done, in or about the premises, by virtue of this power of attorney.

This instrument may not be changed orally.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 21st day of May 1984.
