

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA )
 )
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE )

AFFIDAVIT OF LOU ALICE TURNER

PERSONALLY appeared before me Mrs. Lou Alice Turner, who on oath states, that that she is a resident of upper Greenville County, South Carolina, near Travelers Rest and that she is the surviving widow of Sterling T. Turner, Jr., and as such is familiar with the Turner family history; that William S. Turner, her late husband's grandfather, was the owner of the property described in the within deed, who died intestate on November 7, 1934, and upon whose estate no administration was made; that William S. Turner was survived by his wife, Lizzie Turner, who subsequently died unmarried on December 20, 1940, and the following children: Sterling T. Turner, Hardy Turner, Mollie Turner Goodlett, later Cason, Nannie T. Dickens, and Joe Neva Turner; that Sterling T. Turner, Sr., a child of William S. Turner, died on October 25, 1968, survived by his wife, Kate Greene Turner, who is still living, and his son, Sterling T. Turner, Jr.; that Sterling T. Turner, Jr., died on November 20, 1980, survived by no children, and his wife, Lou Alice Turner; that Hardy Turner died on September 17, 1967 survived by four children, who are Gilreath Turner, Wayne Turner and Jane T. McDowell now living, and a son, Delmas Turner, who died on January 23, 1974; that Delmas Turner was survived by his two children, Phil Turner and Morris Turner; that Mollie T. Goodlett, who later a married a Cason, died on February 22, 1981 and never had any children by either of her marriages; that Nannie T. Dickens is still living; that Joe Neva Turner never married and never had any children.

SWORN to before me )

This 21st day of ) June 1984. )

Shirley G. Greene (L.S.)
Notary Public for South Carolina

My Commission Expires: 2-22-89

Lou Alice Turner
LOU ALICE TURNER

