

attorney's fees, in connection with defending such claim.

In the event of any dispute between the Grantors and the Grantee arising out of the terms and conditions of this Timber Deed and the performance of other parties thereunder, Grantors and Grantee agree to accept and be bound by the decision of an arbitration board of three (3) members, with one member being selected by the Grantors, one by the Grantee and the third member being selected by the first and second arbiters appointed. The arbiters appointed must reach an agreement within thirty (30) days after the appointment of the arbiter by the Grantors and the Grantee. The parties agree to abide by and to be controlled by the "Uniform Arbitration Act" as enacted in South Carolina. The period allowed herein for cutting and removal of timber shall be extended automatically for the number of days required to complete the selection of the arbiters and to complete the arbitration of such issues.

Neither Grantors nor Grantee shall be responsible for non-performance due to strike, lockout, riot, war, civil disturbance, Act of God or other causes (whether or not of a similar nature) beyond the reasonable control of the parties. At the option of the Grantee, the terms of this contract shall be extended for a period of time equal to the time the Grantee is prevented from cutting and removing said timber due to any of the above occurrences so that the Grantee shall have sufficient time to remove said timber.

Should logging conditions become excessively wet during logging operations the Grantors' forester, Piedmont Forestry Consultants, may stop the logging until more favorable soil conditions prevail, provided, however, that if logging is stopped as set out above, the Grantee will be allowed an additional period of time equal to the period in which logging is stopped to compensate for the stopping of logging operations.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD, all of the timber herein conveyed, to the extent cut and removed within the time herein stated, to the said Georgia-Pacific Corporation, its successors and assigns, forever.

And the Grantors do hereby warrant and defend title to the said property herein conveyed unto the said Georgia-Pacific Corporation, its successors and assigns forever from and against any and all rights or claims of any and all persons, firms and corporations whatsoever.

The covenants and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and assigns.

The Grantors covenant to and with the Grantee, its successors and assigns, that they are seized of an indefeasible title in fee simple to the said property, rights and privileges hereby conveyed, that they have the right to grant and convey the trees and timber, rights and privileges hereby granted and conveyed, that the title thereto is free from defects, imperfections and encumbrances, and that it, the said Grantee, its successors and assigns, shall quietly and peaceably possess and enjoy the same; that they warrant generally the title thereto, and will execute such other and further assurances as may be requisite.

WITNESS our hands and seals, this 23rd day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and eighty-four and in the two hundred and eighth year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States.
