

XXII.

SEVERABILITY

The invalidity of any covenant, restriction or other provision of the condominium documents shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

XXIII.

ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO MORTGAGEES

The following provisions, in addition to provisions set forth elsewhere in the condominium documents, shall be applicable to the holders of first mortgages upon the individual residences contained in the condominium.

- A. The holder of any such mortgage shall be entitled to written notification from the Association or the Manager at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of (i) any changes in the condominium documents or regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and (ii) any change of the Manager (not including change in employees of a corporation acting as Manager), provided that the Manager shall have been furnished written notice of the address to which such notification shall be sent.
- B. The holder of any such mortgage shall be entitled to written notification from the Association or the manager of any default by the residence owner of the residence covered by such mortgage in the performance of the obligations of such residence owner under the condominium documents or the regulations adopted pursuant thereto which is not cured within sixty (60) days, provided that the Manager shall have been furnished written notice of the address to which such notification shall be sent.
- C. Unless all holders of first mortgages on individual residences have given their prior written approval, the Association, Board of Directors and Manager, as the case may be, shall not (i) fail to employ a professional manager for the condominium, except, however, Declarant may act as Manager until control of the Association is turned over to the owners; (ii) change the pro rata interest or obligation of any residence for purposes of levying assessments and charges and determining shares of the common elements of the condominium, except as may occur by operation of law, nor (iii) by act of omission seek to abandon the condominium status of the
