(6) To collect all sums due me from any sources, particularly any sums which are now due or may become due from the Government of the United States or any branch thereof, and to execute such instruments, endorsements or signatures thereto in my name as may be requisite or proper to facilitate the collection thereof.

(7) To make up and file any income tax returns, intangible tax returns or tax returns of any other character and, as my agent, to sign and affirm such returns, my attorney-in-fact being fully informed as to all facts necessary to make such returns.

(8) To enter any safe deposit box standing in my name or to which I have the right of access and to deal with the contents thereof at the discretion of my attorney-in-fact.

(9) To make contracts on my behalf with respect to any care and treatment at any hospital, nursing home or institution whose services are needed, in the opinion of my said attorney-in-fact, for my proper care, maintenance and treatment.

(10) To make any contracts on my behalf with respect to any property owned by me and with respect to my care and upkeep, including the employment of a nurse or nurses, physicians, or any other person whose services should be needed for my care and upkeep.

(11) To pay and settle any and all claims or debts, which may be due and owing for my care and upkeep.

(12) To enter into leases on any property owned by me or for any property to be leased by me, including an apartment, rooming accomodations or nursing home accomodations.

(13) To borrow in my behalf and in my name any funds needed by me and to pledge for the payment thereof any stocks, bonds or securities or other property owned by me.

(14) To purchase medicine, clothes, food or other supplies for my benefit.

AND, in general, the said WILLIAM B. PARKER, as my attorney-in-fact, is given full power and authority to do and perform all and every act or thing whatsoever requisite or necessary to be done for my upkeep, care and maintenance, and for the management of any property owned by me, as fully to
