

14. To make gifts to any one or more of my spouse and my descendants of whatever degree (including any Attorney who is a spouse or descendent of mine) in amounts not exceeding $10,000 annually with respect to any one of them. I intend that my spouse as Attorney may continue or initiate a gift giving program. I also intend that my Standby Attorney acting as Attorney may continue any gift giving program, but I request that any initiation of a gift giving program by my Standby Attorney as Attorney be done only after careful consideration of all circumstances, as it is my desire first and foremost to provide for my spouse and thereafter for my children.

15. To disclaim or renounce any lifetime or testamentary gift in whole or in part.

C. Powers Relating to Custody of Person

1. In general, and in addition to all the specific acts in this section enumerated, to do any other act or acts, which I can do through an agent, for the welfare of my spouse, children, and dependents or for the preservation and maintenance of my other personal relationships to relatives, friends and organizations.

2. To do all acts necessary for maintaining the customary standard of living of my spouse and dependents of mine, including by way of illustration and not by way of restriction, power to provide living quarters by purchase, lease or by other contract, or by payment of the operating costs, including interest, amortization payments, repairs and taxes, of premises owned by me and occupied by my family and dependents, to provide usual vacations and usual travel expenses, to provide usual educational facilities, and to provide funds for all the current living costs of my spouse and dependents, including, among other things, shelter, clothing, food and incidentals; and if necessary to make all necessary arrangements, contractual or otherwise, for me at any hospital, nursing home, convalescent home or similar establishment;

3. To continue whatever provision has been made by me, prior to the creation of this power or thereafter, for my spouse and dependents, with respect to automobiles, or other means of transportation, including by way of illustration but not by way of restriction, power to license, to insure and to replace any automobiles owned by me and customarily used by my spouse or dependents; to apply for a Certificate of Title upon, and endorse and transfer title thereto, any automobile, truck, pickup, van, motorcycle or other motor vehicle, and to represent in such transfer assignment that the title to said motor vehicle is free and clear of all liens and encumbrances except those specifically set forth in such transfer assignment;

4. To continue whatever charge accounts have been operated by me prior to the creation of this power or thereafter,
