

the same, as well as for nonpayment of their respective share of the common expenses, upon the unit and ownership in the common elements of such defaulting unit owner and upon all of their additions and improvements thereto.

(B) All rights, remedies and privileges granted to the Association or to an aggrieved unit owner pursuant to the terms of this Declaration or as provided by law shall be deemed to be cumulative, and the exercise of any one or more shall not be deemed to constitute an election of remedies nor shall it preclude the party exercising the same from exercising such other and additional rights, remedies and privileges as may be available to such party at law or in equity.

(C) The failure of the Developer or the Association or any aggrieved unit owner to enforce any right, privilege, covenant or condition which may be granted pursuant to the Act, this Declaration, Bylaws or rules and regulations adopted by the Association shall not constitute a waiver of the right of the Developer, Association or aggrieved unit owner to enforce such right, privilege, covenant or condition in the future.

ARTICLE XIV
JUDICIAL SALES

(A) No judicial sale of a unit nor any interest therein shall be valid unless:

(1) The sale is to a purchaser approved by the Board of Directors, which approval shall be in recordable form and delivered to the purchaser; or

(2) The sale is the result of a public sale with open bidding.
