

ties which I may own or in which I have any interest. In making investments, my said attorney may invest in stocks, bonds, etc., and my said attorney shall not be limited to investments authorized by law for trust funds, but may exercise judgment without regard to such restrictions and without liability for mistakes of judgment when made in good faith.

5. To borrow any sum or sums of money on such terms and with such security, whether real or personal property, as my said attorney may think fit, and for that purpose to execute all promissory notes, bonds, mortgages and any other instrument or instruments, of any kind and nature whatsoever, which my said attorney may deem necessary and proper.

6. To participate in any plan for the refunding or readjustment of any bonds or other securities, or for the enforcement of any obligation by foreclosure or otherwise, or in any corporate consolidations or reorganization, which may affect any of the property which I own, or in any plan or proceedings therefor, for the protection of the holders of such securities, and to exercise and enforce or sell any rights which may be offered or become available in any such matters, as my said attorney may deem advisable.

8. To pay such household, medical and hospital expenses as my said attorney may deem proper and reasonable, and to make and pay such charitable donations as my said attorney may feel I would make if present.

9. To constitute, substitute and appoint in the place and stead of my said attorney, one or more attorneys to exercise for me, as my attorney or attorneys, and all of the powers and authorities hereby conferred, and to revoke any such appointment from time to time and
