All the above mentioned articles in Trust, that the said Master and Mary Stone shall have the joint possession, use and benefit thereof during their lives and at the death of the said Master Stone then to the use of the heirs of his body. Moreover this Trust is on the express Condition, that no price or parcel of the property named above or mentioned in the schedule above alluded to and hereunto annexed shall in any event be liable for the debts or contracts of the said Master Stone, either made before this date or ever hereafter, and full power is hereby expressly given to J. H. Sturmate the Trustee above named to see that the property above mentioned should remain in the possession of the said Master Stone for the joint benefit and use of himself and wife Mary Stone unless by so doing the above described property might be squandered and wasted away then full power is hereby given to J. H. Sturmate the Trustee aforesaid to take into his possession the above property and hold the same for the uses above mentioned, and further full power is hereby expressly given to J. H. Sturmate Trustee to demand and sue for any property above named whenever removed from the possession of Master Stone and Mary Stone either by Contract of either of them or if taken therefrom by Judgment execution or otherwise to satisfy the debts or contracts or liabilities of the said Master Stone as it is expressly given for the benefit above described and it is the express desire of the donor whose name is hereunto subscribed that the Trustee enforce the Letter of the Deed. As Witness my hand and seal this the fourth day of December A.D. 1847
