

A. C. Morris Com'.	Case	192
vs	vs
Jully Holliday	Same	1100
		423

The State of South Carolina

This Indenture made the eighteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty three between A. C. Morris Esquire Commissioner of the Honorable Court of Equity for Anderson District in the said State of the one part and Jully Holliday of the other part

Whereas Mary A. Lewis did on or about the fifteenth day of October last did exhibit her Bill of Complaint in the Court of Equity at Anderson Court House in the said State against John M. Lewis and others heirs at Law of James W. Lewis deceased in a Bill for partition of Land and amongst other things praying that a writ in partition should issue and that the cause being at issue the Honorable Court do come on to be heard at Chambers on the eighth day of August when the said Court after full hearing thereof and mature deliberation in the premises did order and decree that the said Tract of Land known in the proceedings of this case as the Cooley Tract should be sold at public Auction by the Commissioner of the said Court on the Terms and for the purposes mentioned in their Decree and by reference thereto in the Registry of the said Court will appear

And the said A. C. Morris as Commissioner of the said Court after having duly advertised the said Tract of Land for sale at public Auction on the said eighteenth day of December first above mentioned did then openly and publicly and according to the custom of Auction sell