Howell & Coable Wm E. Earle
& others vs
J. C. Bailey and J. C. & E. Bailey

Know all men by these presents, that by virtue of the above writ of fieri facias, to me directed, as Sheriff of Greenville County, in the State aforesaid, and regularly lodged in my office, the property of J. C. Bailey & E. Bailey was levied on and taken under execution; afterwards the property so levied on, was legally advertised for sale in the Greenville Daily News and on the fourth day of March A.D. 1878 being the first Monday in said month, between the hours of eleven in the forenoon and three in the afternoon on said day, one Fairhaven press, one Quarry press, one Eureka press, one Gordon press, one lot of job printing type stands &c, also the name and good will of the Enterprise & Mountainer newspaper sold on account of the above execution, being the property so levied on, was disposed of at public auction to Miss Eliza M. Bailey for the sum of One hundred Dollars she, at that price, or sum, being the highest and last bidder for the same, according to the custom and usage of our dues; Now be it known, that I have received from the said Miss Eliza M. Bailey the aforesaid sum of One hundred dollars and in pursuance thereof, I have delivered to her the said One Fairhaven press, one Quarry press, one Eureka press, one Gordon press, one lot of job printing type, stands &c, also the name and good will of the Enterprise and Mountainer newspaper according to the usage and custom in such cases in the State aforesaid
