

Whereas, R. J. Stewart Administrator of the estate of Sarah Dill deceased, on or about the 30th day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy seven did exhibit his complaint in the Court of Probate in the County of Greenville and State aforesaid, against Amelia O Trammell Charlotte Trammell James M Trammell and Thomas Trammell, and the cause, being at issue before the Honorable Court aforesaid, came onto be heard on the 6th day of March one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight when the said Court after a full hearing thereof, and mature deliberation in the premises, did order, adjudge and decree that the tract of land belonging to the estate of John Calloway deceased hereinafter mentioned and described, should be sold at public auction, by the Probate Judge of Greenville County, on the terms, and for the purposes mentioned in said deorsal order, as by reference thereto, on file in the said Court, will appear, and the said Probate Judge after having duly advertised the said tract of land for twenty one days for sale by public outcry, on the first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy eight, did then, openly and publicly, and according to the custom of auction, sell and dispose of the said tract of land below described, unto James M Trammell for eight hundred dollars he being at that price the highest bidder for the same. Now know all men, that I, the said S. J. Douthick Probate Judge as aforesaid, in consideration of the premises, and also in consideration of the sum of Eight hundred Dollars paid me by the said the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted bargained sold and released, and by these presents do grant bargain sell and release unto the said James M Trammell and his heirs and assigns, all that tract of land, situated lying and being in the County of Greenville and State aforesaid, on Panther Fork waters of Wush Creek, adjoining lands of Blayborne Trammell, Isaac Kelly John de Gordon, John Garmany, W. M. Stroud and Will Bishop, and containing Two hundred Acres more or less, Together with all and singular the rights members, hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever to the said tract of land, together with all and singular appur-tening, and the reversions and remainders, rents issues and profits thereof, and also all the estate, right, title, interest down, possession, property, benefit, claim and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of the said John Calloway deceased, and of all the parties to the said suit, and of all other persons rightfully claiming or to claim the same or any part thereof, by, from or under them, or either of them. To have and to hold the said tract of land with its hereditaments, privileges, and appurtenances unto the said James M Trammell his heirs and assigns forever.

In witness whereof, I, the said S. J. Douthick Probate Judge as aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said Decree, have hereunto set my hand and seal at Greenville S. C. this 29th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty and in the one hundred and 104th year of the Sovereignty and Independence of the United States of America.
