Know all men by these presents, that we, R. O. Vaughan and J. R. Jones, are held and firmly bound unto J. J. Gillespie, Sr., in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars, for the payment of which well and truly to be made we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents.

Witness our hands and seals, this twenty-seventh day of April, A. D. 1883.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that whereas the above bounden R. O. Vaughan has this day made application to the County Court of Greenville county, State of South Carolina, for the issuance to him of a license to retail spirituous liquors, wines, beer and ale, in quantities less than one gallon, at the store house situate on the premises of the said R. O. Vaughan, in the county and State aforesaid, for the term of one year from the date of said license, and the said R. O. Vaughan has executed a bond in the penal sum of Two Thousand Dollars, conditioned as required by law, and has complied with all the requirements of the law in such cases made and provided, and has obtained from the Clerk of said Court a certificate to that effect, and has also obtained from the Auditor of said county a certificate that he has paid into the county treasury the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, the amount required by law for such license, and has also obtained from the Treasurer of said county a certificate that he has paid into the county treasury the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, the amount required by law for such license, and has also obtained from the Intendant and Wardens of the town of Travelers Rest a certificate that he has paid into the treasury of said town the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, the amount required by law for such license, and has also obtained from the Mayor of the city of Greenville a certificate that he has paid into the treasury of said city the sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, the amount required by law for such license, and has also obtained from the Supervisor of Registration for Greenville county a certificate that he has taken the oath required by law to be taken by persons applying for such license, and has also obtained from the Trial Justice for Greenville county a certificate that he has given the notice required by law to be given by persons applying for such license, and has also obtained from the Trial Justice for Greenville county a certificate that he has given the bond required by law to be given