J. L. Green. } Whereas, we, D. L. Green and N. P. Burgess

are partners in trade, in manufacturing cotton, merchandising &c &c, and as such partners own property of various kinds; and whereas we have concluded to dissolve said partnership by N. P. Burgess withdrawing and J. L. Green purchasing his interest; Now this agreement witnesseth that the said partnership is dissolved; that the said N. P. Burgess withdraws and surrenders to the said J. L. Green all the property of every kind owned by them as partners, save and except the "Cedar Hill Farm", the "Cedar Hill Factory" with its machinery and appurtenances, which the said Burgess still retains, so far as the said J. L. Green is concerned; and in consideration thereof the said J. L. Green agrees to pay all the debts of the firm of Green Burgess, and hold the said N. P. Burgess harmless on account thereof, and is also to pay the said N. P. Burgess two thousand dollars in full of his interest in the property herein above surrendered, and the said Burgess agrees to accept the notes of the said Green for that amount payable in four equal, annual instalments of five hundred dollars each, with interest from date at the rate of seven per cent per annum.
