

hereafter bound to pay to the Air Line Company, for interest, only such sum as the interest thereon so reduced shall amount to. And it is further understood and agreed between the parties that, when the principal of any of the bonds secured by the mortgages of said Air Line Company shall become due, the said Air Line Company will, in good faith, earnestly co-operate with the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company in providing for the renewal or extension of said bonds, and that it will, to that end, execute, when requested by said company, such bonds, mortgage or mortgages on its property as may be found necessary to provide for the payment of said bonds and the interest to grow due thereon; it being understood that the said Air Line Company will en-tend its aid in the renewal or extension of said bonds when they become due, upon the most favorable terms, by such corporate action on its part as may be usual and necessary, and if the efforts to reduce the rate of interest on the bonded debt of said Air Line Company, or any part thereof, when it matures should be successful, that the advantage of said reduction shall ensue to the said Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, and it will be bound to pay only the amount of interest accruing on said bonds, at such reduced rate at the times aforesaid. And the said parties also agree that they will in like manner co-operate in providing for the extension or renewal of the Income Bonds herein before mentioned, when they mature; and the said Air Line Company agrees that it will, when requested by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, execute in such form and at such rate of interest as may be prescribed by the said Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, its bonds to be used for the purpose of taking or discharging, in some form, the said Income Bonds. And the stipulations herein relating to the bonds and mortgages now outstanding shall be applicable to any bonds or mortgages that may be hereafter executed for the redemption, payment or renewal of the same.

It being distinctly understood and agreed, and it
