

cordance with the order or orders of the Court allowing such and adjudging with respect thereto; and subject also to all debts and obligations incurred or to be incurred by the said Receivers which had not been or should not have been paid by them, and which should be adjudged by the said Court to be debts or obligations properly chargeable against the property purchased and to be prior or superior to the lien of the said mortgage of October 22, 1886, but not subject to any Receivers' certificates therefor issued for any emergency loan not having priority over the lien of said mortgage, nor subject to the assumption or adoption of any leases described or referred to in said consolidated mortgage not expressly assumed or adopted by the said purchasers;

And, Whereas, The said purchasers have complied with and fulfilled all the terms and conditions of said order and decrees, so far as the same are now ripe for performance;

And Whereas, Said purchasers have duly notified the said Courts that upon the due execution and delivery of these presents, they and their associates will forthwith become and be body politic and corporate of the State of Virginia by the name hereinafter set forth by force of the statute in such case made and provided, being An Act of the Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia, approved February 20, 1894, entitled "An Act authorizing the purchasers of The Richmond and Danville Railroad, their assigns and successors, to come and be a corporation, to adopt a name therefor, and to possess and exercise general powers; and authorizing the leasing to or by, and the consolidation there of other corporations;"

And, Whereas, Under and in pursuance of the said statute, the said purchasers, parties hereto of the third part, have declared, and do herein and hereby declare, that they have selected and do select, as the name by which they and their associates shall by force of the said statute become a corporation, the name and title of "Southern Railway Company;"

And, Whereas, In and by the said decrees it was required and directed that the Receivers appointed in the said writ should make, execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers good and sufficient deeds of conveyance or evidence of transfer of
