Greenville County. } Court of Probate.

Do all whom these presents shall come:

I, John C. Bailey, Probate Judge in and for the County aforesaid, send greeting:

Whereas, Prisca Ann Kelly, as administratrix of the estate of Isaac Kelly, deceased, on or about the 21st day of June, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and ninety-one, exhibited her complaint in the Court of Probate for the County aforesaid, against James S. Kelly, Susan E. Collins, Carrie E. Drummell, Prisca Ann Kelly et al., demanding judgment in relation to the lands of Isaac Kelly, deceased, hereinafter mentioned and described, and the cause being at issue came on to be heard on the 12th day of December, 1891, and such proceedings were had therein as recited in a decree of the said Court, whereby it was adjudged and decreed that the said lands hereinafter mentioned and described, be conveyed by P. W. B. Freeman, Probate Judge, in and for the County aforesaid, on the terms and for the purposes mentioned in the said decree as by reference thereto on file in said Court will appear; and the said P. W. B. Freeman, Probate Judge, after having duly advertised the said lands for sale by public outcry on Saturday in November, 1892, did then and there, openly and publicly, and according to the custom of auction sell and dispose of the same unto F. C. Dickson for the sum of fifteen hundred and eighty dollars, being at that price the highest bidder therefor. And whereas, the said P. W. B. Freeman, having resigned his said office as Probate Judge as aforesaid, without having executed deeds for said lands, and J. C. Bailey having been appointed and having duly qualified as his successor in said office, Now, therefore, I am moved by these presents, that I, J. C. Bailey, successor in office to P. W. B. Freeman, Probate Judge in and for the County of Greenville aforesaid, in consideration of
