

The State of South Carolina.
By The Secretary of State.

Whereas W. M. Whitmore and A. J. Good did on the fourth day of October 1894, file with the Secretary of State a written Declaration, First: The names and residences of the said petitioners to be: W. M. Whitmore and A. J. Good, both residents of the City of Greenville S. C. Second: The name of the proposed Corporation to be that of The Whitmore Good Company; the principal place of business to be the City of Greenville, in the County of Greenville, and State of South Carolina; the purpose of said Corporation is to engage in the business of general merchandizing. Third: The amount of Capital Stock to be Three thousand Dollars and the number of Shares into which the same is to be divided to be thirty of the par value of one hundred Dollars.

And whereas on the fourth day of October 1894, the said W. M. Whitmore and A. J. Good were commissioned by me a Board of Corporators, authorizing and empowering them to open books of subscription to the Capital Stock of said proposed Corporation, giving not less than one days previous notice by advertisement in the a newspaper published in the County of Greenville, giving notice of the time and place, when the said books of subscription would be opened.

And whereas The said Board of Corporators on the tenth day of October A. D. 1894 did file with the Secretary of State their return in writing, over their signatures certifying among other things, that the entire amount of the Capital Stock has been subscribed and paid to the proper officers designated to receive the same.
