Whereas S. L. Dickson on December 1st 1892 executed unto G. A. Norwood his mortgage deed to secure his certain note to the said G. A.
 Norwood dated of that day and promising thereby to pay the sum of seven hundred and Sixty two ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars in four annual installments with interest from its date at the rate of eight per cent per annum, as reference to said note will more fully show, and by said mortgage conveyed to the said G. A.
 Norwood his heirs and assigns the lands hereinafter described, and whereas in and by the said mortgage the said S. L. Dickson empowered and authorized the said G. A. Norwood in case of default in the payment of the said note or any part thereof to grant, bargain, sell, release and convey the said premises at public auction, at which sale the mortgagee might become the purchaser, and at such sale to make and execute to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns a conveyance in fee of the said premises, and to apply the proceeds to the payment of the said charge and debt; and whereas default having been made in the payment of the said note, after due advertisement in the Greenville Mountainer, a newspaper published in the city of Greenville S. C. of the time place and terms of sale, together with a description of the premises once a week for three weeks prior to said sale, the said G. A. Norwood caused said premises to be offered for sale at public auction before the Court House in the County and State aforesaid on Monday the 15th of July 1895, at 12 M for cash at which sale the said G. A. Norwood was the highest bidder at the price of nine hundred
