

date
1874
1855

Deed Granlin to Patton
" Aunt Adkins to D. B. Allender

State of South Carolina
Greenville County
P. Exhibit "B"

Personally appeared before me Thomas M Kemp who being duly sworn deposes and says: That he is Eighty four years old; That he was not exceeding 14 or 15 years of age when he first saw the large stone erected to N. E. of Gap Creek Road near the Asa Cunningham old residence; that said stone was said to mark the boundary line between the Counties of Spartanburg and Greenville.

Sworn to before me Mch 25th 1894.
J. D. Norman N.P. Deal
State of South Carolina
Greenville County

Thomas M Kemp
his mark

Personally appeared before me David Cannon who being duly sworn deposes and says: That he is over 72 years of age; that he has known from his earliest recollection that the large stone standing on N. E. side of Gap Creek Road near the Asa Cunningham old residence was regarded as being on the dividing line between the Counties of Greenville & Spartanburg.

Sworn to before me Mch 25th 1894.
J. D. Norman N.P. Deal
South Carolina
Spartanburg County

David Cannon

Personally came before me Dr. J. B. Caldwell of Gowersville Greenville County S.C. who being duly sworn deposes and says: that in the year 1853 the large rock standing on East side of Gap Creek Road about 300 yds north of the old Asa Cunningham as marking the dividing line between the Counties of Spartanburg & Greenville.

Sworn to before me March 20th 1894.
J. D. Norman N.P. Deal
State of South Carolina
Greenville County

J. B. Caldwell, M.D.

Personally appeared before me J. P. Warner who being duly sworn deposes and says that he is over 66 years of age; that he has known for 60 years that the large stone standing to N. East of Gap Creek Road near Asa Cunningham old place was considered to be on the dividing line between the Counties