

of Spartanburg and Greenville: that during that time he has never, until recently heard anything to the contrary.

Sworn to before me Mar. 25, 1896,

J. D. Norman N.P. Seal } J. P. Farmer
State of South Carolina
Greenville County

Personally appeared before me N. G. Rector who being duly sworn deposes and says that he is over 71 years of age, that he has known from his earliest recollection that the large stone standing on N. E. side of Gap Creek Road near the Asa Cunningham old residence, was regarded as being on the dividing line between the Counties of Greenville and Spartanburg.

Sworn to before me Mar. 25, 1896,

J. D. Norman N.P. Seal } N. G. Rector
State of South Carolina
County

Personally appeared before me Mrs. M. J. Benson who being duly sworn deposes and says; that she is now over sixty (60) years of age; that she has known for over 50 years to her own certain knowledge, that the large stone standing on the East side of the Gap Creek Road near Asa Cunningham's was regarded as being on the boundary line between the Counties of Spartanburg and Greenville, it having been frequently pointed out to her by her father Wm. Callinger, when she was a child.

Sworn to before me March 20th 1896

J. D. Norman N.P. Seal } M. J. Benson
State of South Carolina
Greenville County

Personally appeared before me Mrs. Maria Brown who being duly sworn deposes and says; that she is 81 years of age; that she was born and raised in the vicinity of Mastiters Mill. That she has known from her childhood that the large stone erected on N. E. side of Gap Creek Road near the old Asa Cunningham residence was always so far as she knows said to mark the boundary between the Counties of Spartanburg and Greenville. That during her childhood