To City of Greenville }

Whereas the Southern Railway Company and the City Council of Greenville entered into an agreement dated April 19th 1897 touching the change of certain streets in the City of Greenville, which said agreement was executed in duplicate, one part of which is now on file with the City Clerk and Treasurer

Now, in consideration of said agreement and to comply with the covenants therein contained:

The Southern Railway Company grants and dedicates for public use to the said City Council of Greenville, its successors in office, a right of way for the deflection of Washington Street as shown in the blueprint attached to said agreement, forty feet in width, extending from Washington Street over the lot conveyed by John Westfield to Atlanta & Richmond Air Line Railway recorded in Book E.C. page 426, in the office of Register of Mesne Conveyances for Greenville County, thence over the right of way on both sides of the track, crossing said track at under grade, thence across lands of Boyle and Mauldin, thence across the south west corner of the lot of the Company.

In witness whereof the Southern Railway Company has caused these presents to be signed by its third Vice President and attested by its this 22nd day of March A.D. 1898.
