improve the Real Estate, held and owned by the Company, to buy and sell Real Estate, bonds and Mortgages, bonds and stocks and other evidences of indebtedness.
 Third The amount of Capital Stock to be Fifty Thousand Dollars and the number of shares into which the same is to be divided to be Five hundred shares of One Hundred Dollars each. That the said shares shall be payable in fifty monthly instalments of two dollars each. That it is proposed that at the end of the said Fifty months, at which the shares so subscribed may be paid up. That the profits earned by such shares may be declared as dividends and that each share holder may then have the option of withdrawing his or her shares with the dividends thereon declared or after so receiving their dividends may continue the said shares as paid up stock, receiving therein such dividends as may be hereafter declared.

And Whereas, on the thirteenth day of February, 1891, the said Hamlin Beattie, Frank Hammond, Jno. E. Beattie, Jas. H. Maxwell, Jas. A. Hoyt, C. H. Tulerweider, Theo. B. Hayne, A. G. Furman and Lewis H. Parker were commissioned by me a Board of Corporators, authorizing and empowering them to open books of subscription to the Capital Stock of said proposed corporation, giving not less than three days previous notice, by advertisement in The Greenville Daily News, a newspaper published in the County of Greenville giving notice of the time and place where said books of subscription would be opened.

And Whereas, the said Board of Corporators, on the Seventeenth day of April, A. D. 1891, did file with the Secretary of State their return in writing over their signatures certifying among other things
