Sec. 15. Every corporation chartered under this Act shall have the following powers, to wit:

1. To have perpetual succession
2. To sue and be sued by the corporate name
3. To have a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure.

4. To prescribe the mode of transferring the shares of the corporation.

5. To make contracts, to loan money, to acquire and to transfer property, both real and personal, including shares of stock in other corporations, possessing the same powers in such respects as individuals now enjoy.

6. To make by-laws, and all rules and regulations deemed expedient for the management of its affairs, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State, or of the United States.

7. To have a lien upon the shares of its stock holders to enforce the payment of installments due upon the capital stock, to provide and to enforce the collection of such fines and penalties for delinquency in payments of its installments upon the capital stock as its by-laws may fix, not to exceed ten per centum of account due.

8. To borrow money for the purpose of carrying out the objects of its charter, to make notes, bonds or other evidences of debt, and upon a vote of the stock holders and after such notice as is provided in Section 10 of this Act to secure the payments of its obligations by mortgage or deed of trust on all or any of its property and franchises, both real and personal.
