State of South Carolina,

To All Whom These Presents Shall Come and Be Made Known, or Whom It May Concern, I, John C. Bailey, a Judge of Probate of the County of Greenville, in the said State of South Carolina, do hereby certify that the said William H. Harrison, deceased, did submit his claim in the Court of Probate in the County of Greenville and State of South Carolina, for the Probate of the Will of the said William H. Harrison, in and of his Personal Assets, to pay debts of the deceased.

And the said Court, being at issue before the Honorable the Court of Probate, did on the 13th day of February, 1897, do and decree that the said real estate, to-wit: the premises described in the said Decree, should be sold at public auction by the Judge of Probate for Greenville County, on the terms and for the purposes mentioned in the said Decree, as by reference thereto, on file in the said Court, will appear: And the said Judge of Probate, after having duly advertised the said lands or real estate for sale by public outcry, on the first day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, did there, openly and publicly, and according to the custom of action, sell and dispose of the said real estate below described, unto Joseph C. Belcher, for forty dollars, being at that price the highest bidder for the same.

Now Know All Men, That I, the said John C. Bailey, as Judge of Probate as aforesaid, in consideration of the premises, and also in consideration of the sum of forty dollars, paid me by the said Joseph C. Belcher, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these Presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said Joseph C. Belcher, and his heirs and assigns forever, All that piece, parcel or tract of land, situate lying and being in Highland Township and State and County aforesaid, adjoining lands of J.F. Reese & R. Moon et al., on waters of Beaverdam Creek, the same conveyed to said William H. Harrison, deceased, by Jacob Belcher, January 23rd, 1897, and recorded in Book C.C.C., page 619 of R.M.C. office, for Greenville County, and containing forty six and one-half acres, more or less.

Together with all and singular the rights, members, hereditaments and appurtenances whatsoever to the said premises belonging, or in anywise appertaining, and the reversions and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof: and also all the estate, right, title, interest, dower, possession, property, benefit, claim and demand whatsoever, both at law and in equity, of the said William H. Harrison, and of all the parties to the said suit, and of all other
