I, L.O. Patterson a Notary public in and for said State and County, do hereby certify unto all whom it may concern that Mrs. Victoria E. Jennings, the wife of the within named L.I. Jennings did this day appear before me, and upon being privately and separately examined by me, did declare that she does freely, voluntarily and without any compulsion, dread or fear of any person or persons whomsoever, renounce, release and forever relinquish unto the within named R. E. Johnston, and his heirs and assigns, all her interest and estate, and also all her right and claim of dower of, in or to all and singular the premises mentioned described and released in a certain deed of conveyance executed by L.I. Jennings to John H. Goodwin, bearing date December 31, 1870, and recorded in office of Register of Mesne Conveyances for Greenville County on March 7, 1871, in Deed Book "C.C." at page 528; conveying the undivided interest of said L.I. Jennings in a certain tract of land containing three hundred and ten acres, more or less, situate in Greenville County South Carolina, on both sides of Fall Creek, adjoining lands formerly belonging to Wilson Barton, Joseph Goodwin and others; the said tract of 110 acres, more or less, having been conveyed by said John H. Goodwin to Thomas Wilson, and by said Thomas Wilson to said R. E. Johnson; the previous renunciation of dower on the part of the said Victoria E. Jennings having been irregular, in that no seal was attached thereto; and the intention of the present renunciation being to clear the title of said R. E. Johnston to the said land.

Given under my hand and seal. Victoria E. Jennings.
