NOTICE AND AFFIDAVIT OF
LIEN ON SHIP OR VESSEL

PERSONALLY APPEARED before me, Lyle Stelter, who being duly sworn, states that he is a citizen and resident of the County of Greenville, and is engaged in the business of building high-speed boat motors:

I, Lyle Stelter, am engaged in the business of building, installing, and repairing boat motors used primarily for racing or other high speed performance, and have been engaged in this business in the County of Greenville, State of South Carolina. On May 10, 1979, Ken Keenan brought to me a 1979 Sangar, PF Hyrdo plane hull without engine or mountings that I understood he owned and requested me to build a high-speed engine and mount or install it into that hull, and otherwise complete the hull for racing and high-speed performance. I agreed to do this, and beginning on that date, I furnished labor and material in the building of said boat motor as is fully detailed in Exhibit B, which is attached hereto and made a part of this affidavit as fully as if repeated herein. There remains unpaid and due and owing to me for said labor and materials the sum of $13,314.15 in accordance with the attached statement of account marked Exhibit A, which is also made a part of this affidavit as fully as if repeated herein. That I made repeated demands for payment, but Mr. Keenan has failed to do so and continues to refuse to do so. Ken Keenan removed the boat
