

duties and obligations (unless specifically otherwise provided hereunder or by any applicable law) shall be exercised by the Corporate Trustee;

(4) That the Company and the Corporate Trustee, at any time, by an instrument in writing executed by them jointly, may remove the Individual Trustee;

(5) That in case of the happening of any of the events of default specified in Section 7.02 hereof, the Corporate Trustee, by an instrument in writing executed by it without the concurrence of the Company, may remove the Individual Trustee and may appoint a successor or successors;

(6) That any notice, request or other writing by or in behalf of any holders of the Bonds, delivered to the Corporate Trustee, shall be deemed delivered to both the Trustees hereunder as effectually as if delivered to each of them;

(7) That any request in writing by the Corporate Trustee, shall be sufficient warrant to the Individual Trustee, to take such action as may be so requested.

In case the Individual Trustee shall die, resign, or be removed, all the estates, properties, rights, powers, trusts, duties and obligations of the Trustees hereunder, so far as permitted by law, shall ipso facto vest in and be exercised by the Corporate Trustee or its successor in the trust, without the appointment of any trustee or successor to the Individual Trustee.

SECTION 8.07. In the event that the Company shall deliver to the Corporate Trustee a certificate, signed by the President or a Vice President of the Company, stating that a purchaser from the Company of property not subject to the lien of this Indenture demands of the Company, as a condition to the completion of such a purchase, evidence from the Corporate Trustee that such property is not subject to the lien of this Indenture, and if the Company shall also deliver to the Corporate Trustee an opinion of counsel that such property is not sub-
