

Also released and relinquished from the lien of the foregoing judgment all water lines, pipe lines, telephone lines, electric light lines, and rights of way for the same, whether leading to or upon the said property, together with all streets running through, over and upon the property referred to above. It being the purpose of this release to allow the said W. D. Workman to sub-divide the property aforesaid, cut the same into lots, mortgage the lots and sell off the property with full water and light privileges, free and clear of the lien of our judgment above referred to.

It is specifically understood and agreed however, that the said judgment is not being released against the said W. D. Workman, but only the property referred to above is released therefrom.

Dated at Greenville, S. C. this the 29th day of June A. D. 1926.
