WALKER, EVANS & COGSWELL CO., CHARLESTON, S. C.

State of Louisiana Cataqua Co.

Parish of Jamahill

Before me, Jamahill Notary Public duly commissioned and qualified in and for the Parish and State aforesaid, personally came and appeared Peter Jamahill, who being by me first duly sworn, deposed and said that he resides in the Town of Jamahill, Parish and State aforesaid, and is engaged in the business of Planter; that he is the duly authorized agent of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., a corporation domiciled in the Town of Jamahill, Parish and State aforesaid, and that he is duly authorized to execute the following described instrument of writing for and on behalf of said corporation; that he is well acquainted with the facts therein contained and knows the same to be true and correct; that the said corporation is the owner and holder of the following described promissory note, to-wit:

One certain promissory note executed and delivered by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1927, and due and payable one day after date, for the principal sum of Three Thousand ($3000.00) Dollars, with interest thereon from date at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable annually, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1927, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $180.00 - One Hundred & Eighty ($180.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1928, and due December 1, 1928, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1928, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $180.00 - One Hundred & Eighty ($180.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1929, and due December 1, 1929, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1929, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $180.00 - One Hundred & Eighty ($180.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1930, and due December 1, 1930, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1930, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $180.00 - One Hundred & Eighty ($180.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1931, and due December 1, 1931, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1931, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $144.00 - One Hundred & Forty-Four ($144.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1928, and due December 1, 1928, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1928, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $144.00 - One Hundred & Forty-Four ($144.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1929, and due December 1, 1929, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1929, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $144.00 - One Hundred & Forty-Four ($144.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1930, and due December 1, 1930, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1930, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $144.00 - One Hundred & Forty-Four ($144.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1931, and due December 1, 1931, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1931, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

One certain promissory note for $144.00 - One Hundred & Forty-Four ($144.00) Dollars, executed by Thomas Jackson to the order of the Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., dated June 1, 1932, and due December 1, 1932, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until paid, and providing for the payment of ten per cent additional as attorney's fees in case the same is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or is collected by suit or through bankruptcy proceedings, or otherwise, and providing for the payment of all costs of collection, and providing that default in the payment of any interest coupon when due shall mature the principal debt, before maturity, at the option of the holder thereof, and providing that the mortgage securing said note may be foreclosed by executory process, which said note is secured by a mortgage of even date therewith executed by the said Thomas Jackson to the said Jamahill Bank & Trust Co., upon the following described property, to-wit:

(Here follows description of property mortgaged)

which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Mortgage Records of Jamahill Parish, Louisiana, on the 1st day of June, 1932, in Book 396 of Mortgages, folio 213, and

NOTARIAL SEAL

Satisfaction Recorded Jan 7 Day 1930 At 11:30 AM

(Next Page)