

Then to hold the overplus subject to the rights of the holder of any subsequent lien or encumbrance on the said premises, who may give express notice in writing of his holding the same, and if no such claims be made, then to pay such overplus to the said mortgagor. But if the said proceeds shall be insufficient to pay the said debt, interest, taxes, fees, costs and charges the amount unpaid shall not be extinguished by the mortgagee becoming the purchaser of the premises. The completion of said sale, by conveyance, shall entitle the purchaser to immediate possession of the premises; and any holding of the same thereafter by the said mortgagor or other persons holding under him, shall be as tenant of the said purchaser, at a rent of thirty-five ($35.) dollars per month, payable monthly; And the said purchaser may at any time determine such tenancy by giving one month's notice to the party in possession, or without such notice, in case at any time any rent be due and unpaid; And in either of said cases such purchaser shall have the right to obtain possession of the said premises, as in other cases of landlord and tenant, upon the determination of a lease. In case of sale by any corporation as mortgagee or assignee of this mortgage, the deed shall be executed in the name of the mortgagor by the president of said corporation, as Attorney in fact. And the said mortgagor doth, as additional security, hereby assign, set over, and transfer to the said mortgagee, all of the rents, issues and profits of the said mortgaged premises, accruing or falling due from and after the service of a summons in any action of foreclosure to which said mortgagee may be parties, and the holder of this mortgage shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver for such rents and profits, as a matter of right, without consideration of the value of the mortgaged premises as security for the amount due the mortgagee, or the solvency of any person or persons liable
