ATLANTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Virginia, with its principal office in the City of Richmond, Virginia, and legally domesticated and doing business in the State of South Carolina, hereinafter called the Mortgagee, in the full and just sum of Twenty-seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($ 2750.00), for money lent, as evidenced by one certain promissory note, signed by Frances P. Adams and Thad Adams even date herewith, payable to the order of the Mortgagee, at its Principal Office, Richmond, Va., and bearing interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from maturity until paid in the amounts and to become due as follows:

date until paid, principal and interest being payable in 138 equal monthly instalments of $ 27.50 each, beginning June 15, 1936, and one last instalment of $ 26.68, plus accrued interest, on December 15, 1947. If default be made in the payment of any monthly instalment, the unpaid balance of the note, with all accrued interest thereon, may, at the option of the holder, be declared due and collectible at once, and all delinquent instalments bear interest at the highest lawful rate now permitted under the laws of the State of South Carolina. Said monthly instalments, except the final instalment, shall be paid as due to said Atlantic Life Insurance Company or its transferee in exchange only for an appropriate receipt and without any exhibit of said note. The Mortgagor and her successors in title to the real estate hereinafter described expressly waive any rights they may have to demand intermin partial or protents release of this mortgage until payment of the full amount of said note and the complete discharge of all covenants herein contained.
