TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY CONCERN:

I, Agnes Walker Smith of the County of Greenville in the State aforesaid, hereinafter called Mortgagor, send greeting:
WHEREAS, the Mortgagor is well and truly indebted to

ATLANTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Virginia, with its principal office in the City of Richmond, Virginia, and legally domesticated and doing business in the State of South Carolina, hereinafter called the Mortgagee, in the full and just sum of Twentythree Hundred Dollars ($ 2300.00), for money lent, as evidenced by one certain promissory notes, signed by Agnes Walker Smith of even date herewith, payable to the order of the Mortgagee, at its Principal Office, Richmond, Va., and bearing interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum from maturity until paid, in the amounts and to become due as follows:

per centum per annum from date until paid, principal and interest being payable in 138 equal monthly instalments of $23.00 each, beginning October 1st, 1936, and one last instalment of $22.32, plus accrued interest, on April 1st, 1948. If default be made in the payment of any monthly instalment, the unpaid balance of the note, with all accrued interest thereon, may, at the option of the holder, be declared due and collectible at once, and all delinquent instalments bear interest at the highest lawful rate now permitted under the laws of the State of South Carolina. Said monthly instalments, except the final instalment, shall be paid as due to said Atlantic Life Insurance Company or its transferee in exchange only for an appropriate receipt and without any exhibit of said note. The mortgagor and her successors in title to the real estate hereinafter described expressly waive any rights they may have to demand interim partial or protento releases of this mortgage until the full amount of said note and the complete discharge of all covenants herein contained.
