TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY CONCERN:

I, Roger P. Scovil of the County of Greenville in the State aforesaid, hereinafter called Mortgagor, send greeting:

WHEREAS, the Mortgagor is well and truly indebted to

ATLANTIC LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Virginia, with its principal office in the City of Richmond, Virginia, and legally domicinated and doing business in the State of South Carolina, hereinafter called the Mortgagee, in the full and just sum of Nine Thousand Dollars ($ 9,000.00 plus interest thereon from date at the rate of 5 per centum per annum), for money lent, as evidenced by one certain promissory note, signed by Roger P. Scovil the order of the Mortgagor, at its Principal Office Richmond, Va. and bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum until paid in the amounts and to become due as follows: None Office in the City of Richmond, Virginia the said principal sum being due and payable in instalments as follows: One Hundred Twelve and 50/100 Dollars ($112.50) quarterly on February 1, May 1, August 1 and November 1 for thirty-nine (39) quarters, beginning May 1, 1937, with balance of Four Thousand Six Hundred Twelve and 50/100 Dollars ($4,612.50) on February 1, 1947, said interest being due and payable quarterly on the 1st day of each February, May, August and November, hereafter, beginning May 1, 1937.

The said note provides that the maturity thereof may at any time be accelerated and the unpaid balance of principal with all accrued interest declared due and payable at once, at the holder's option, upon default in the payment when due of any installment of principal or interest, and that all delinquent instalments of both principal and interest shall bear interest after maturity until paid at the rate of seven per centum per annum, payable semi-annually. The said note further provides for payment of 10% of the principal and interest due thereon when collected, if it be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, and contains a waiver of presentment, demand, protest and notice of dishonor, protest and extension, and a waiver of the benefit of any exemption under the Homestead and all other exemption laws.
