Until any such default shall occur, the Trustees may, and they are hereby directed to pay out of the sums of money received by them as hereinabove specified, such of the second mortgage or subordinate notes as may mature from time to time, but no such payment shall be made out of any money received by them for the purpose of paying the interest coupon notes, or the principal notes (1st series) hereinabove mentioned and described as a first lien under this deed of trust.

And in consideration of the premises, the first parties covenant and agree as follows:

1. Should such first parties desire to use all or any part of such proceeds of insurance to repair, replace or restore the property damaged or destroyed, or to have refunded to it the cost of the same, it shall notify the said second parties within sixty (60) days from the date of the receipt by the latter of such funds; the Trustees shall thereafter, within thirty (30) days, advise the said first parties whether they will give or withhold their consent to such use of the proceeds of insurance policies; in the event that they give their consent, then the said first parties shall have the right to use such proceeds of insurance for such purposes within the period of months from the date of the receipt by them of notice from the Trustees of their consent to such uses of such monies. And upon a failure or breach of performance of any of these covenants and agreements in any particular, the Trustees may, without notice to the first parties, pay such taxes, assessments, levies and charges, and take such steps as may be necessary to secure or redeem the said property from forfeiture or sale, and effect or renew such fire and tornado insurance and make such repairs as may be necessary to keep the improvements in good order and repair, and take or cause to be taken such steps, including legal proceedings, as may be desirable to prevent the commission of waste, impairment or deterioration of said property, or any part thereof, or the cutting of timber, beyond the reasonable requirements of the premises, or to perfect the title to the said property in the Trustees, and all sums expended in the doing of, or on account of the same, shall be a part of the debt hereby secured, and shall be secured as fully as the principal debt and interest coupon notes herein declared a first lien are secured, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent. (6%) per annum from the date of the expenditure thereof, and shall, together with the interest thereon, be repaid by the first parties before the expiration of a period of thirty (30) days thereafter. But there is no obligation upon the Trustee to make such payments, or take such steps, nor shall any act of the Trustees nor any failure to act under the powers hereby invested in them, nor any lapse of time, be construed as a waiver of any breach of the covenants and agreements contained herein.
