

at once, anything herein before or in said obligation contained to the contrary notwithstanding, and it shall and may be lawful for the said F. S. Royster & Sons Company its Successors and assigns, and the said C. T. Neely doth hereby empower and authorize the said F. S. Royster & Sons Company its Successors or assigns, to grant, bargain, sell, release and convey the said premises, with the appurtenances, at public auction or vendue, at the door of the Court House in the County aforesaid, to the highest bidder for cash, three weeks previous notice of the time, place and terms of sale having been first given once a week in some newspaper published in said County; at which sale they, or any of them, shall have the right to become purchaser of the said premises, and on such sale to make and execute to the purchaser or purchasers, his, her, or their heirs and assigns, forever, a conveyance in fee of the said premises, freed and discharged from all equity of redemption and right of dower, and all and every other encumbrance subsequent to this mortgage; and after deducting from the proceeds of said sale of taxes due thereon, or which may have been paid by the mortgagee, the principal and interest due on the said debt, and ten per cent Attorney's fees premiums of insurance and the costs and charges of the said sale, then to hold the overplus subject to the rights of the holder of any subsequent lien or encumbrance on the said premises, who may give express notice in writing of his holding the same, and if no such claims be made, then to pay such overplus to the said C. T. Neely his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns. But if the said proceeds shall be insufficient to pay the said debt, interest, taxes, fees, costs and charges the amount unpaid shall not be extinguished by the mortgagee becoming the purchaser of the premises. The completion of said sale, by conveyance, shall entitle the purchaser to immediate possession of the premises; and any holding of the same thereafter by the said C. T. Neely or other person holding
