

State of South Carolina
County of Greenville

For value received, I, W. W. Simon, of Greenville, S. C., do hereby agree to hold any and all money which may be collected by me in my suit against the Aetna Casualty & Surety Company for Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars, for breach of surety bond covering the construction of my brick building on Lutherford and Duncombe streets in the City of Greenville, in trust for the South Carolina National Bank of Charleston, S. C. and hereby agree that when said money is collected from suit or by settlement that my attorneys shall pay the same over to the South Carolina National Bank of Charleston, S. C., after deducting their fee for services, said money to be applied as payment upon the note and mortgage now held by the South Carolina National Bank of Charleston, S. C., executed by me, or any other indebtedness of mine to said bank; and this agreement shall constitute an order upon my attorneys to pay said money as above agreed.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 31st day of December A. D. 1926.

In the presence of:

W. W. Simon, (S. C.)
