TO ALL WHOM THESE PRESENTS MAY CONCERN:

John E. Hale and Lillie Hale

SEND GREETING:

WHEREAS, we, the said John E. Hale and Lillie Hale in and by a certain promissory note in writing, of even date with these presents, are well and truly indebted to

Taylor's Lumber Company in the full and just sum of One Hundred Twenty five and no/100 ($125.00) Dollars, to be paid on demand with interest thereon, from 1st day of October at the rate of 10 percent per annum to be computed and paid semi-annually until paid in full all interest not paid when due to bear interest at the same rate as principal; and if any portion of principal or interest be at any time past due and unpaid, then the whole amount evidenced by said note to become immediately due, at the option of the holder hereof, who may sue thereon and foreclose this mortgage, said note further providing for an attorney's fee of Ten per cent besides all costs and expenses of collection, to be added to the amount due on the said note, to be collectible as a part thereof, if the same be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if said debt, or any part thereof, be collected by an attorney or by legal proceedings of any kind (all of which is secured under this mortgage); as in and by the said note, reference being thereunto had, as will more fully appear.

NOW KNOW ALL MEN, That we the said John E. Hale and Lillie Hale in consideration of the said debt and sum of money aforesaid, and for the better securing the payment thereof to the said Taylor's Lumber Company
according to the terms of the said note, and also in consideration of the further sum of Three Dollars, to us
John E. Hale and Lillie Hale

in hand well and truly paid by the said Taylor's Lumber Company
at and before the signing of these Presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold, and released, and by these Presents do grant bargain, sell and release unto the said Taylor's Lumber Company
