Personally appeared before me John H. Williams, who, being duly sworn, deposes and says that he is the bona fide owner and holder of the note and mortgage executed by R. M. Hammond to Sam R. Zimmerman, July 20, 1921, which mortgage is duly recorded in the R. M. & C. Office for Greenville County, South Carolina in Real Estate Mortgages, Volume 105 at page 246, the said mortgage having been duly assigned to him, that he has not assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of said note and mortgage, and that the same have been lost or destroyed, and after diligent search can not be found, that dependent has full authority to mark the mortgage satisfied and cancelled of record.

Sworn to before me this 8th day of October, 1931.
