

AND it is further covenanted and agreed that the whole of said principal sum and the interest shall become due, at the option of the said Mortgagee, upon failure of any owner of the above described premises to comply with the requirements of any Department of the City of Greenville, South Carolina.

AND it is further covenanted and agreed by the said parties that if default be made in the payment of the indebtedness as herein provided or of any part thereof, the Mortgagee shall have power to sell the premises herein described according to law: said premises may be sold in one parcel, any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding.

AND the said Mortgagor further covenants and agrees to keep the buildings on said premises constantly insured for the benefit of the Mortgagee, against loss by fire and tornado, in such manner and in such companies and for such amounts as may be satisfactory to the Mortgagee, until the debt hereby secured is fully paid.

AND should the Mortgagee, by reason of any such insurance against loss by fire or tornado as aforesaid, receive any sum or sums of money for any damage by fire or tornado to the said building or buildings, such amount may be retained and applied by it toward payment of the amount hereby secured; or the same may be paid over, either wholly or in part, to the said Mortgagor.

AND it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law of the State of South Carolina deducting from the value of land, for the purpose of taxation any lien thereon, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage for State or local purposes, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the said Mortgagee, without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.

AND it is further covenanted and agreed that the mailing of a written notice and demand by depositing it in any post-office, station, or letter-box, enclosed in a postpaid envelope addressed to the owner of record of said mortgaged premises, and directed to said owner at the last address actually furnished to the holder of this mortgage, or in default thereof, directed to said owner at said mortgaged premises, shall be sufficient notice and demand in any case arising under this instrument, and required by the provisions thereof or the requirements of the law.

AND it is further covenanted and agreed by said parties that in default of the payment by said Mortgagor of all or any taxes, charges and assessments which may be imposed by law upon the said mortgaged premises or any part thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the said Mortgagee, its successors, legal representatives and assigns, to pay the amount of any such tax, charge or assessment with any expenses attending the same; and any amounts so paid, the Mortgagor shall repay to the said Mortgagee, its successors, legal representatives or assigns, on demand, with interest thereon, and the same shall be a lien on the said premises and be secured by the said bond and by these presents.

AND the said Mortgagor further covenants and agrees, should the said obligation be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, by suit or otherwise, in case of any default in the covenants and agreements herein contained, to pay all costs of collection and litigation, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, and the same shall be a lien on the said premises and be secured by this mortgage, and payment thereof enforced in the same manner as the principal obligation.
