Personally appeared before me Jas. M. Richardson who on oath says that he is an attorney practicing law in the City of Greenville, County and State aforesaid, but in April, 1912 and for some years thereafter he was cashier of the People's Bank of Fountain Inn, S. C.; that on about the fifteenth day of April during the said year 1912, one J. M. Stokes of Fountain Inn, S. C. delivered One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars to this deponent with the instructions to pay off and take up a mortgage given by the said J. M. Stokes to the Bank of Fountain Inn in the sum of One Thousand ($1000.00) Dollars bearing date January 27, 1912, and recorded in the office of the R. M. C. for Greenville County, Book 17 at page 161; that this deponent did not take up the said mortgage at the Bank of Fountain Inn, and it was then and there satisfied and delivered to this deponent, but the said paper has not been satisfied upon the public records of Greenville County, and is now lost or mislaid, and this deponent is not able to produce the said paper in order to secure its satisfaction. Deponent further says that the satisfied mortgage has not been assigned or transferred, but has been paid, and should be satisfied upon the records.

Dated at Greenville, South Carolina this 3 day of September, 1935.
