

mortgages, owned said note and mortgage at the time of the execution of said satisfaction piece, and they, with the Estate of B. B. Studley, deceased, still are the bona fide owners and holders of said note and mortgage and the same has not been assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of but has been lost or destroyed and after diligent search cannot be found.

Further, deponent says that on or about December 4, 1928, Mrs. Frances Montgomery executed and delivered to her a note secured by a mortgage, in the sum of $4500.00 covering lot No. 2 on the plat above referred to, which mortgage is recorded in the A. M. C. office for Greenville County in Volume 118, page 78.

That on or about March 11, 1931, deponent as owner and holder of said mortgage executed a satisfaction thereof empowering S. A. Gresham, as Registrar of Mesne Conveyance for Greenville County, to satisfy same upon the records of his office.

That she was at the time of the satisfaction of said mortgage, and still is the bona fide owner and holder thereof and the same has not been assigned, hypothecated or otherwise disposed of, but has been lost or destroyed and after diligent search cannot be found.

Spreads to before me this 6th day of April, 1936

J. C. Porter, (f. S.)
Notary Public for Tennessee.
My commission expires
Jan. 24, 1940.

Mrs. S. H. Richardson

#4267

Recorded April 15, 1936 at 11.45 A. M.

State of South Carolina,
County of Spartanburg

Personally appeared before me Mr. Alton Crow, who being duly sworn says that he is the Administrator of the Estate of B. B. Studley; that he is informed and believes that on or about December 14, 1928, Mrs. Frances Montgomery executed and delivered to B. B. Studley, Mrs. S. H. Richardson, M. J. M. Arthur and C. W. Arthur her promissory note secured by a mortgage in the sum of $10,500.00, on lots 3, 4 and 5 as shown on plat recorded in the A. M. C. Office for Greenville County in Plat Book 7 at page 225, said lots being situated on the west side of North Main Street, in the City of Greenville, that said mortgage was recorded in said A. M. C. office in Volume 118, at page 77.

Deponent is further informed and believes that where the name in said mortgage appears as B. B. Studley, the same is an error and was intended to and did refer to B. B. Studley, who, along with the other mortgagors, had endorsed the note of the mortgagor to Merchants & Farmers Bank of Spartanburg, S. C., and said mortgage to B. B. Studley and the other mortgagors was executed and delivered as additional security on account of said endorsement.

That on or about March 13, 1931, deponent is