Personally appeared before me C. F. McCullough, who being first duly sworn, deposes and says that deponent and his brother J. D. McCullough are the owners and holders of a note and mortgage given by H. B. Springs Company to their father Joseph A. McCullough for the original sum of $3000.00, recorded in Mortgage Book 195, page 86, R. M. C. office for Greenville County.

That deponent's father subsequent to the execution of the above mortgage, died testate and deponent and his brother J. D. McCullough were the residuary legatees under the will of their father, and as such are the owners and holders of the above described mortgage and the note which it secures. That deponent has made diligent search for the original mortgage but has been unable to find same, although deponent does have in his possession the original note accompanying said mortgage. That said mortgage has not been transferred, assigned or hypothecated but same is now lost and cannot be found. That deponent and his said brother have duly executed the satisfaction above, authorizing the Register of Mesne Conveyance of Greenville County to satisfy and cancel said Mortgage of record. That said mortgage was paid many years ago by the conveyance of the lot covered by said mortgage to deponent and his said brother by deed recorded in Deed Book 156, page 221, R. M. C. office for Greenville County.
