

definitive Bonds to be issued under this Indenture; and such authentication by the Trustee shall be conclusive evidence that any such temporary Bond so authenticated has been duly authenticated and delivered hereunder, and that the holder is entitled to the benefit of the trusts hereby created.

Temporary Bonds shall be exchangeable, from time to time, at the principal office of the Trustee without expense to the holder, for definitive Bonds, when prepared. Such definitive Bonds shall be printed, lithographed, or engraved on steel engraved tints. Immediately upon any such exchange, the surrendered temporary Bonds shall be canceled by the Trustee and thereafter cremated. Until so exchanged, said temporary Bonds shall in all respects be entitled to the lien and security of this Indenture.

Without unnecessary delay the Obligors will execute and will furnish definitive Bonds, to be exchanged as aforesaid for said temporary Bonds upon surrender thereof to the Trustee.

Section 2.07. In case any Bond secured hereby shall become lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed, the Obligors may execute, and, upon their request, the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor and date, bearing the same or another serial number or designation, in exchange and substitution for and upon cancellation of the mutilated Bond, or in lieu of and in substitution for the Bond lost, stolen or destroyed. The applicant for a substitute Bond shall pay the expense of the preparation and issue thereof, and, if such be the case, shall furnish to the Obligors and to the Trustee evidence to their satisfaction of his ownership of and of the loss, theft or destruction of such Bond and also in any case such indemnity as shall be required by the Obligors and the Trustee. The Obligors may in their discretion, but without any obligation so to do, pay any such Bond which may have been so lost, stolen, mutilated or destroyed and which shall have become due and payable, upon presentation to it of like evidence and indemnity.

All Bonds issued hereunder shall be held and owned upon the express condition that the foregoing provisions are exclusive with respect to the replacement or payment of mutilated, lost, stolen or
