

Section 7.12. Without derogation of any authority conferred upon the Trustee by any other provisions of this Indenture, the Trustee is authorized to file such proofs of claim and other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and of the holders of Bonds hereby secured allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to any of the Obligors, their creditors or their property, subject, however, to the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 8.23 hereof.

Section 7.13. Subject to the provisions of Article Eleven hereof and of Section 7.03, all moneys received or set aside by the Trustee, or received by any paying agent, for the payment of the principal of or interest on the Bonds shall be held by the Trustee or paying agent, as the case may be, in trust for the benefit of the holders of Bonds entitled thereto. Moneys so held by the Trustee or by a paying agent which is a bank or trust company subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authority need not be segregated in any manner from any other moneys except to the extent required by law. Moneys so held by a paying agent which is not a bank or trust company subject to supervision or examination by a federal or state authority shall be segregated from any moneys held otherwise than in trust by such paying agent, but need not be segregated from other moneys held in trust by such paying agent except to the extent required by law.

ARTICLE EIGHT.

Remedies of the Trustees and Bondholders.

Section 8.01. In case any one or more of the following events (herein sometimes called events of default) shall happen, that is to say:

(a) default shall be made by the Obligors in the due and punctual payment of any instalment of interest on any Bond or Bonds secured by this Indenture, as and when the same
